Ending homelessness and creating healthy communities

SHINING STARS YOUTH EDUCATION PROGRAM

Mid-Year: January 1 – June 30, 2014

Children from homeless and lower-income households often experience difficulties in academic competencies and lack the basic social and cultural skills necessary for future success. These children often fall further and further behind their peers academically, socially, and ultimately, economically. For nearly twenty years, the Shining Stars Youth Education Program has provided the youngest guests of Hope House and children from households in the surrounding neighborhoods with an environment which is safe and structured, built on trust and empathy, and staffed by caring adults who offer opportunities that strengthen academics, model positive social skills, and provide an atmosphere in which to practice new skills. Youth are offered a plethora of unique experiences to further their development as students and citizens.

PARTICIPANT DEMOGRAPHICS

The population served by the Shining Stars Youth Education Program is children, ages 6 – 17, living on-site in the Hope House shelter or within the community on Milwaukee's south side. The majority of community youth participants live in neighborhoods in close proximity to Hope House.

In the first half of 2014, Shining Stars has served a total of 56 children – 26 females, 30 males – demographically comprised of 50% African American, 36% White, 2% Asian and 13% Bi-Racial. 45% were also Hispanic.
